Classical economics or classical political economy is a school of thought in economics that flourished, primarily in Britain, in the late 18th and early-to-mid 19th century. Its main thinkers are held to be Adam Smith, Jean-Baptiste Say, David Ricardo, Thomas Robert Malthus, and John Stuart Mill. These economists produced a theory of market economies as largely self-regulating systems, governed ...

A comparative study conducted by Logan et al. (2012) indicated that both entertainment and informativeness have a significant impact on the value of social media ads and TV ads. Another significant relationship was also noticed by Logan et al. (2012) between advertising value and customers' attitudes. However, Logan et al. (2012) disproved the impact of irritation on the advertising value.
